References

The collegegreen theme incorporates Trinity's corporate branding

The theme uses the official TCD colour palette and (loosely) matches the visual identity guidelines at `tcd.ie/identity`.

- The colour scheme uses the official Trinity Blue (`pms_300`, #0569b9)
- Cool Grey is used for subtitles, sub-item bullets, and hyperlinks
- The footer bar carries the full institutional name and a frame counter
- The logo is embedded automatically on the title page
- All 13 named PMS colours — plus tint ramps — are available as named macros
  - e.g. `\color{pms_312}` or `\color{pms_280_50}`
- The theme works well with pdfLaTeX and XeLaTeX

In-text citations

Citations use the author-year style. For example:

- A seminal study on minimum wages used a natural experiment comparing New Jersey and Pennsylvania (Card & Krueger 1994).
- Angrist & Krueger (1991) estimate returns to schooling using compulsory attendance laws as an instrument.
- For a comprehensive treatment of IV and DiD methods, see Angrist & Pischke (2009) or Wooldridge (2010).
